

resign, remove from said town, or be from any cause disqualified, an election to fill such vacancy shall be held, of which ten days' notice shall be given, and all persons qualified to vote at a regular election shall be entitled to vote at any special election.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 21, sec. 66.

78. The burgess, before acting as such, shall make oath before some justice of the peace for Washington county, that he will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of burgess to the best of his knowledge, and each commissioner, before acting as such, shall also make oath before some justice of the peace of said county that he will faithfully and honestly, to the best of his skill and judgment, exercise the powers given and discharge the duties of him required as commissioner of Clearspring, impartially and without favor or resentment, and without delay.

Ibid sec 67

Ibid. sec. 68.

80. They may appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

Ibid sec. 69.

81. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the burgess and commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places in said town.

Ibid. sec. 70.

82. The burgess and commissioners shall cause the footways of the town to be graded so that the citizens of the town, who may wish to pave the same, can see where such paving shall be made.
